

Department of International Relations

The mission of the Department of International Relations is to establish and develop effective mutually beneficial partnerships with leading educational and scientific institutions of the world, in order to increase the international prestige of the university as a highly professional educational, scientific, innovative institution in Kazakhstan.

Main tasks:

- Preparation of bilateral and multilateral cooperation programs in the field of science, education and culture;
- Implementation of measures to expand the export of educational services;
- Ensuring the interaction of the University's structural units in the field of international cooperation.

The Department of International Relations of the University was established in 2013 to provide organizational, informational and methodological support for the international activities of the university, develop cooperation with international organizations, educational institutions; improve the educational process, improve the quality of training based on the creative use of international experience; organizing and coordinating the movement of students or research teachers for a certain academic period to another higher educational institution (within the country or abroad) for training or research, including in a distance format.

Study abroad

The organization of education abroad aims to integrate students with international academic programs and opportunities that allow them to gain knowledge and develop skills in order to become successful and productive members of the global community. In partnership with higher education institutions, departments, faculty and staff, we strive to raise awareness of education abroad, promote intercultural contact, and advocate for diversity of participants and programs.

Every year, more and more University students are sent to study and undergo language and scientific internships in foreign educational and scientific institutions. The University organizes foreign academic mobility of faculty and staff of the university for conducting classes, scientific research, as well as participation in international conferences, meetings at the invitation of foreign universities and organizations. Since 2020, teachers, staff and students have been participating in various international events and meetings in an online format.

International support

The Department of International Relations is ready to support and help foreign citizens of our university in every possible way in terms of:

- consulting and support during migration procedures within the framework of the current laws and regulations of the Republic of Kazakhstan;
- providing support during the adaptation period, organizing special programs and events aimed at integrating into the academic and social environment of the university, as well as familiarization with the culture of the country as a whole;
- work as a link between foreign citizens of the University and government agencies of the Republic of Kazakhstan;
- Promoting the internationalization of Baishev University, providing an opportunity for further development of international cooperation and intercultural interactions.

The Department of International Relations works with both foreign and domestic teachers and students who wish to cooperate with our university in order to realize successful external and internal mobility of participants in the educational process.

Applicants for participation in exchange programs must meet the following requirements:

- Complete the first semester of the Bachelor's degree at the time of application
- Possess the appropriate level of knowledge of the English, or speak the language in which the training takes place at the host partner university
- Have a GPA of 2.0 and above
- Be an active participant in student life

If you have any questions, please contact us by phone or email.

Contact information:

- e-mail: int.dep@bu.edu.kz Instagram: @int_dep_bu
- tel: +7 (7132) 97-40-83 Fax: +7 (7132) 52-36-00
- address: 302A Br. Zhubanovyykh str., Aktobe, 030000, Kazakhstan

Director of the Department of International Relations - Yerniyazova Zhanat Tulegenovna